

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of using their position to try to discredit Mr. Kerry and force this drivel onto unsuspecting and possibly glibble viewers. They should be compelled to air the other Kerry film, "Going Up River, the Long War of John Kerry. Their action is despicable and nothing more than smear and slanderous tactics! This demonstrates a new low in politics.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard.

Thank you.
